The Mandel Early Childhood Education Program at the Shaw JCC of Akron is looking for a full-time Pre-K teacher and several full-time assistant teachers working with children ages 2, 3, and 4.

Must have previous experience working in a child care setting with a preference given to candidates with CDA and above. Background check and a physical will be required.

As a Pre-K teacher, you will be responsible for the planning and implementation of lesson plans to prepare and creating a classroom community with your students and co-teacher and families.

As an assistant teacher, you will be working in tandem with the lead teacher in the classroom to implement lesson plans and support the children.
